

The New York State-Federal Judicial Council, working with the New York State Bar Association, the New York State Office of Court Administration, the Second Circuit, and the Schools of Journalism at New York University and Syracuse University, cordially invites you to attend the annual Fair Trial-Free Press Conference being held on October 21 in New York City and October 30 in Syracuse. The program is free and open to lawyers and nonlawyers.

Dates: Monday, October 21, 2019 (NYC); Wednesday, October 30, 2019 (Syracuse)

Time: 11:30 a.m. (Registration); 12:00 - 2:00 p.m. (Program)

Location: Moynihan Federal Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, Room 850 (NYC); Newhouse School of Journalism (Syracuse)

Please register at the link below:

www.nysba.org/FairTrialFreePressCLE

Fair Trial-Free Press Conference

The Fair Trial-Free Press Conference is a gathering of representatives from the bench, both state and federal; law enforcement; District Attorney and U.S. Attorney offices; criminal defense bar; news organizations, journalists and editors; and media law bar. The panel will discuss a hypothetical involving a criminal prosecution that garners public and press attention with implications for the First Amendment.

Please distribute this announcement to anyone you think may be interested in attending.