

Securing Appointments as a Fiduciary, Monitor, Master, or Other Judicial Adjunct

November 16, 2015 – 6:00-7:30 PM

Association of the Bar of the City of New York
The Great Hall
42 West 44th Street
New York, NY

Time	Speaker	Description
15 minutes	Honorable Shira A. Scheindlin	Overview of the types of appointments made in federal court, duties of such appointments, examples of ones she has made, and what she looks for in appointees
8 minutes	Alex Vasilescu, Esq.	Overview of the types of appointments made in SEC matters in federal court and duties of such appointments
8 minutes	Zachary Carter, Esq.	Descriptions of appointments he has received and duties of each appointment
15 minutes	Michele Gartner, Esq.	Overview of Part 36 appointments, duties of such appointments, and the philosophy of the rules to expand the pool of potential appointees
9 minutes	Honorable Eileen Bransten Honorable Alan D. Scheinkman	Justices Bransten and Scheinkman will divide up descriptions of the types of appointments made in the Commercial Divisions, the duties of each type of appointment, and what each of them looks for in an appointee
8 minutes	Surrogate Rita Mella	Description of Appointments in Surrogate's Court, the duties of each type of appointment, and what she looks for in an appointee

8 minutes	Justice Rachael Adams	Description of the types of appointments made in family court, and, if possible, in the matrimonial part, the duties associated with each type of appointment, and what she looks for in an appointee
-----------	-----------------------	---